

During the first two decades of this century, Al Seitz had his barber shop on Main Street next to Swezey's. As the displays in the windows indicate, he also sold Victor Talking Machines, or gramophones as they were called later. This picture was taken in 1907.

The Anello Shoe Shoppe, 84 West Main Street, stood on the south east corner of Main Street and Railroad Avenue in the 1920's.

The Citizens Trust Company Bank building on West Main Street. This new bank opened its doors June 20, 1925. In 1933 the Citizens Trust Company, established in 1903, merged with the Patchogue Bank and Trust Company, established in 1884. The name of the newly formed bank became the Patchogue Citizens Bank and Trust Company, later simplified to The Patchogue Bank. October 31, 1963 the Patchogue Bank became the Island State Bank.
