

The corner of Waverly Avenue and Main Street in 1940. The large house on the right had recently burned and Felice's Gas Station would be built here in the future. Across the street is the Mount Carmel Church with the rectory barely visibly to the right of the church.

Felice's gas station on the northeast corner of Main Street and Waverly Avenue in 1950.