

Another view of the Elks Lodge dining room.

The property of the Elks Lodge was sold to the New Jersey based Commerce Bancorp, when the overhead on the property became too high. Attempts to save the building by moving it to another location failed because of the prohibitive cost involved. The demolition of the building began February 13, 2002.

The Commerce Bancorp building under construction.

The completed Commerce Bank, 2002.