

Hyman Steiner, the owner of the Economy Pharmacy on South Ocean Avenue, had been in business in Patchogue since 1931. His store was next to the Olympia. The date of this picture is approximately 1944.

Nelson McBride's drugstore on the northeast corner of Main Street and Ocean Avenue was one of the oldest businesses in Patchogue, established in 1881. this picture was taken in 1945.

The Ruby Lane store for women on South Ocean Avenue was bordered on the south by Kresge's 5&10 store and on the north by the Audrey Shop on the east side of the street.