

There were many other larger and smaller fires in the vacant mill complex over the coming years. This fire destroyed the large building on the north side, June 3, 1994

After the fires.

A July 1989 picture of the vacant and vandalized Lace Mill. This is the building facing Main Street.