

Popular long time Patchogue postmaster, Harry T. Weeks, as he takes the first shovel full of soil from the ground during the ground breaking ceremony. The gentleman behind him in the dark jacket and light colored pants is Patchogue's Mayor Foster.

In 1932 the construction of the new post office was started. This picture was taken December 14, 1932. R.W. Erikson was the general contractor assigned to the project and Nathan Abramson was the construction engineer. The building was designed by the well-known Patchogue architect John V. Von Pelt.

The Patchogue Post Office under construction. This picture was taken from the south. The Patchogue Hotel can be seen in the background.