

The Baker home on the south side of Baker Street was purchased by the Patchogue Village in the 1930's and converted into the headquarters of the village government.

The Patchogue Village Municipal building on Baker Street. Originally TERA, the Temporary Emergency Relief Administration, built it for their own use on this village property, but it was turned over to the Village of Patchogue in 1935. The building to the left is the Jarvis Baker home, which was purchased by the village and housed the village departments prior to the acquisition of the TERA building. In 1946 this became the YMCA building, which was torn down in later years and the space became the Village Hall parking lot.

The new Patchogue Village Board, May 1934. From left to right: Trustees William E. Jones, Robert Van Tuyl, Stanley Truman, Village Clerk John P. Losee, Mayor Robert J. Bailey, Charles N. Butler Jr., Arthur Mullin and Michael Prudent. Robert Bailey was the first Democrat to win the office of Mayor of Patchogue.