

The north side of Oak Street, near North Ocean Avenue. This area was also turned into a parking field.

Construction work on the Oak Street lot. In the background the Patchogue Theater.

These old buildings on Terry Street were demolished to make room for a large parking lot.

The Terry Street parking field under construction in 1962. South Ocean Avenue can be seen in the background.

Terry Street parking field opening ceremony, 1962. Mayor Robert Waldbauer cut the ribbon