

The Clam And Crab Festival.

The Clam and Crab Festival was held for three years in the late 1990's in the parking lot of the National Sea Shore Terminal. Bands, food concessions and entertainment for the children were provided for the visitors.

The 2004 Optimist National Championship Regatta.

The Bellport Bay Yacht Club sponsored the regatta, which was held at the Great South Bay in the last week of July, 2004. 430 competing young sailors come from as far away as Australia. The fleet of boats assembled at the Patchogue Shore Front Park. The Kiwanis Club of Patchogue members helped the young sailors launch their boats and provided a barbeque for a 1,000 visitors. The regatta was a huge success.
