

The Sea Crest Village Condominiums

A 2004 picture of the first section of the Sea Crest Village condominium on the Felice property on South Ocean Avenue, between Terry and Academy streets.

Don Felice's Ocean Avenue service station on the corner of Academy Street in the Fall of 2005. These buildings would be soon torn down and replaced with the second section of the Sea Crest Village.
