

acquired West Main Street site. This $6 million project turned the 27,000 square- foot building into a 24- station dialysis center, a home care agency and a financial office. More than 100,000 visitors a year are expected to use the facilities.

- The Iglesia Roca de Salvation Church, located in the former YMCA building on South Ocean Avenue, became a total loss due to a fire January 12,1998.
- On May 22,1998, the last section of the reconstruction and bridging project of Sunrise Highway, between Oakdale and Sayville, was completed.
- Gateway Playhouse used the partially completed Patchogue Theater for the Nutcracker On Ice show performed by the St. Petersburg Ice Ballet. The very successful show was performed from December 17 through December 29, 1998.
- The final deal for the Lace Mill site purchase between the Village of Patchogue and Swezey's was signed on May 27, 1999, after the ironing out of several details. The construction of the new store building began in the summer of 1999.
- The reconstruction of the Fifth Police Precinct on Waverly Avenue was completed in June 1999.
- Gateway Playhouse signed a five month contract with the Village of Patchogue in June 1999 to stage 50 shows in the Patchogue Theater between September 1, 1999 and January 30, 2000. The theater opened with the performance of Titanic on September 15, 1999.

