

In the foreground of this 1957 picture the foundation for the coming new Peoples National Bank building is visible. The large home is the residence of John J. Roe Sr. The building in the background is the Patchogue Hotel.

The 'Glass House' and the "Doll House" stores on 88-90 East Main Street were heavily damaged by fire June 11, 1977. The building was remodeled in 1978 to become a mini-mall with a walk-through to the Terry Street parking lot.
