

In 1944 all Patchogue citizens were invited to take part in a 360 degree group photo shot staged at the 'Four Corners'. This picture was sent to all the soldiers from Patchogue serving in the Armed Forces. It was impossible to fit the picture in its original format in this book, so it had to be divided into sections.

