

The Ward & Glynnes theater on East Main Street. Mike Glynn opened this new theater on May 23, 1923. The theater had seating for 1330 people. The interior was richly decorated and it was one of the most beautiful theaters on Long Island.

Ribbon cutting ceremony on May 23, 1923. The three gentlemen in light coats in the center of the group are, from left to right: John Tuthill Jr, Edgar Sharp, and John Swezey. Behind John Tuthill stands Dave Weissberger and Herb Austin.