

The 1958 Fire

A spectacular blaze destroyed the lobby of the Patchogue Theater and also 4 stores and 4 offices October 2, 1958. The fire apparently originated in the basement under the Hamburger Cho Cho restaurant. Only the lobby of the theater was destroyed and the auditorium was unharmed. The theater resumed operations the next day. The new temporary entrance was from the Oak Street parking lot.

