

The 1993 Fourth of July Parade

The beautiful weather drew a large crowd of spectators. This is East Main Street in front of the Patchogue Theater.

The favored place for the grand stand always was in front of the Elks Lodge on East Main Street.

The prize winning Patchogue Historical Society float in the 1993 Fourth of July parade.