

The very cold winter of 1976 – 77 gave ice boaters a rare opportunity to practice their sport on the frozen bay. Ice boating was almost an annual winter sport at the turn of the century, when the bay froze over in most winters.

Patchogue's West Lake always was a favored place for ice skating, because it is the most accessible of the Patchogue lakes.