

Another picture of the highway department equipment, now in front of the Municipal Garage. The construction of the Municipal Garage on Waverly Avenue started September 7, 1954. The seven bay garage, which cost $59 000, was capable of housing all of the village's equipment.

A 1960's picture of the Patchogue Village Highway Department crew at work with a snow blower on Terry Street.