

Mayor Waldbauer cutting the ribbon at the Lake Street parking field, December 1, 1961. Mayor Waldbauer was the driving force behind the master plan that added several hundred parking spaces to Patchogue's downtown area during his tenure from 1960 to 1976.

The fire department practicing on the Lake Street parking field in 1977, which soon would become the site of the elevated parking garage.

The Patchogue Elevated Parking Garage on Lake Street opened the upper level December 16, 1978.