

These two Jim Mooney pictures show the changes on the north side of the Lace Mill. In this picture the Patchogue Lake came close to the mill buildings.

This second picture shows the extension of West Avenue curving around the north side of the mill to connect with Waverly Avenue. A portion of the Patchogue Lake was filled in to support the roadbed.