

Temporary improvements on Sunrise Highway included these turn-off lanes running diagonally through the center divider. At the bottom of the picture Phyllis Drive crosses Sunrise Highway and in the upper part of the picture is the Medford Avenue crossing. The large building is the Home Depot. Jim Mooney took this picture April 3, 1991.