

The corner stone of the Congregational Church on East Main Street was laid May 14, 1892, and the dedication of this beautiful church took place on May 14, 1893.

The interior of the Congregational Church.

The United Methodist Church, on the southwest corner of South Ocean Avenue and Church Street, was dedicated June 1, 1890, replacing the previous church building on the southeast corner of Church Street and Railroad Avenue.