

Dr. Harry Unger opened a private hospital in June, 1919 in the West Lyceum Apartment building on Lake Street. This is a 2006 picture of the building.

In 1922 Dr. Unger opened a new private hospital and maternity ward in this building on the northwest corner of Lake Street and Jennings Avenue. This is the building in 2006.

A picture of the Carman residence on the southwest corner of Carman Street and Bailey Avenue in the year 1900. This home was converted in 1923 to become the Patchogue Private Hospital, run by nurse Miss Margaret Hughes.

The Patchogue Private Hospital in 1936. The hospital was operated at this time by nurse Miss Bertha Quimet.