

The ground breaking ceremony of the new Seton Hall High School on Roe Boulevard on May 8, 1949 and the following parade were attended by a crowd of 3,000 people. The school opened in the fall of 1952. This new school replaced the former school buildings on Leo Street.

The new Seton Hall High School on Roe Boulevard. This 1957 Mooney aerial picture shows the high school and school grounds along the left side of the lake bordering on Sunrise Highway. The road crossing the Patchogue Lake in the center of the picture is Roe Boulevard.