

The staff of the Patchogue Advance in 1936. From left to right : Edward Bryan, Margaret Campion, Virginia Rowe, Jerry Cejka, George Cesman, Charlotte Jones, Raymond Buys, John T. Tuthill Sr, Frank P. Johnson, Ronald "Pat" Dey, John T. Tuthill Jr, Lloyd C. Harris, Gladys Hammer De Vito, George W. Andrews, Mary Campion, Marguerite Henken, Lillie Valentine, Marcel Wagner, and Wallace King.

Clint Stalker, in front, and Art Leffers are working in the printing department of the Advance in this 1950's picture. .

The Argus, another Patchogue newspaper, was first published in 1884 by L. B. Greene. The Argus newspaper operation was bought after L.B. Greene's death by the Patchogue Advance, October 8, 1930 and was published alongside the Advance for several more years.