

The Patchogue Lakes

The three lakes in Patchogue were created about 200 hundred years ago by the damming of the three streams in the village, to provide waterpower for mills. The mills are long gone, but we have three beautiful lakes left that are a pleasure to look at.

The Patchogue Lake, looking east. Across the lake lies the Cedar Grove Cemetery.

The Swan Lake in East Patchogue.

The West Lake.