

Alive after Five on Main Street, 2006. Between July and September every year, Main Street is closed every other Friday from 5 o'clock on for the Alive after Five events. Two to three bands perform at every event and there are many merchandise and food concession booths or tents between Havens and Maple Avenue for the visitors.

Alive After Five 2006. The Brick House Brewery has set up many tables and chairs in front of their building and every seat seems to be taken.
