

This group of pictures was taken at the Furman boat yard at 345 Bay Avenue in Patchogue around the turn of the century. The upper picture shows a boat under construction in the shed. In the center is a picture of the Ship Chandler and grocery store that John T. Furman operated on the premises. The lower picture is a view of the yard.

