

1, Gerety, Mgr.; 2, Norton; 3, McLane; 4, Terrell; 5, Ackerly; 6, Rogers; 7, Spague; 8, E. P. Smith, Pres.; 9, Roe; 10, Hawkins; 11, Hicks; 12, Walsh.
PATCHOGUE BASE BALL CLUB.

A picture of the members of the Patchogue Baseball Club, taken from a sports advertisement booklet, published around the turn of the century.

The bicycle race track on Maple Avenue, north of Roe Blvd., was also used for baseball games. A large covered bleacher was built for the crowds attending the games.

The "Jack-Will Farm" baseball team, sponsored by Ruth Litt, on her Pierce Arrow. Pictured are, back row: Dave Hiscox, Richard Smith, George Knittle. Second back row: Ira Still, Roy Smith, Ernest Terry, Chad Smith, Jack Litt, Welland Litt, (in tire), Norman King, chauffeur Peter Peterson, Humphrey Avery, Frank Sillman, coach F. Sillman and mascot "Buff".