

Beautiful Homes in Patchogue

This is Oakmere, the Carman Home and Estate between Rider and Bay Avenue, on the south side of Carmen Street, the way it looked one hundred years ago. This building became the Patchogue Hospital in later years. Miss Hughes was the resident nurse.

The home of Nathaniel O. Swezey on the southwest corner of West Main Street and Railroad Avenue in 1900. Mr. Swezey sold this home in 1906. In the 1920's it was used for a time as the Brookhaven Town Hall.
