

The Engine Hose Co. Band at the turn of the century. The members are from left to right: Reatner Banner, Arthur Middlebrook, Louis Michrowitz, Herman Schoenfeld, Adam Rudy, Percy Fordham, George Nicholi, William Stummy, Tony Francis, Gus Francis, Wiggins, Harry Ball, Thomas Baker and Alva Nichols.

The members of the Engine Hose Company with their hose cart. This picture was taken in 1902 on North Ocean Avenue in front of the firehouse, a small part which can be seen on the left of the picture.

Members of the Euclid Hose Company # 2 posed with their hose reel cart in front of the new firehouse on Lake Street in 1905. The cornerstone for this new firehouse was laid on August 27, 1904. The cost was $8,795, and the builder was Clarence Vrooman.