Mr. W. E. Gordon
Dear Sir & Friend,

It is with pleasure and honour that I am able to state
my experiences in the Navy.

I enlisted in the United States Naval Reserve Force, at the best of my knowledge, April 15, 1917 went into active service May 18, 1917 as a cook, Third Class.

Attended the first school for Navy cooks being the third one to enter this school. after two weeks training was made 2nd class.

Transferred to Gunstonhurst Base #649- where I was for two weeks as a cook.

From: Sergeant Howard F. Greene, Q. M. C.,
To: Dr. W. E. Gordon, Local Historian, Patchogue, N.Y.
Subject: Record of Army Service.

1. Enlisted in the Regular Army July 3, 1915 shortly after the Lusitania was sunk. Was assigned to the 26th Recruit Co. at Columbus Barracks, Ohio for instructions.

2. On August 18, 1915 was ordered to Fort H. G. Wright, N.Y. and assigned to the 131 Coast Artillery Company at that Post for duty. This Company was a Mine Company and its duties were to plant mines in time of war in the waters of Long Island Sound. It also had a battery of Rapid Fire Guns to man. In the mornings we had our drills while the afternoons was devoted in study so as to pass examinations for 2nd and then 1st class Gunner. I passed these examinations in March 1916 and became a 1st Class Gunner which increased my pay. During the winter months I devoted my evenings in the study of wireless telegraphy and passed the entrance examinations March 1916 for The Enlisted Specialists School at Fortress Monroe, Va. Only one other soldier besides me out of twelve hundred men passed these entrance examinations. At first I was an assistant operator at the Radio Station at Fort H. G. Wright, N.Y. and later became Chief Operator of the Radio Station at Fort Terry, N.Y.

3. From the 131st Coast Artillery Corps to a Staff Department, namely: The Ordnance Department, in December 1916. I was appointed Corporal of Ordnance February 1, 1917 and a Sergeant of Ordnance February 1, 1918. During the war I was the ranking Sergeant and had three large warehouses under my control; three Sergeants, ten Corporals, and thirty-eight privates. I supervised the equipping of every regiment which left Fort Wright for France, besides numerous Anti-Aircraft Batteries, etc.

4. In January 1919 the Ordnance Section was transferred to the P. S. & T. Division of the Quartermaster Corps and I was transferred with it.

5. On Sept. 25, 1919 I was discharged with the following endorsement on my discharge: "This soldier is considered eminently well fitted for a commission as a 1st Lieut." I re-enlisted Sept. 26, 1919 for a period of one year, and assigned to Fort Wadsworth in charge of the Ordnance Section of the Purchase, Storage and Traffic Division.

PATCHOGUE MAN WOUNDED
IN FOOT BY SHRAPNEL

First wounded by Patchogue
Private Harvey Hammond of Patchogue, L. I., was wounded in an engagement on June 13. His name has never appeared on the casualty list, but, according to a letter received from him by his folks this week, he was struck in the foot by a piece of shrapnel and was under treatment in a base hospital. Private Hammond went to Camp Upton early last October and was soon transferred to Camp Gordon, Ga. He left for France in April with Company F, 328th Infantry.

Dear Mr Gordon: -

Am returning
the slip, which you sent; and have written the information you desire.

Since I saw no overseas service
I believe it would be better for me to not send a picture, but leave that to those who have had honor to their credit.

I went first to the Marine Barracks at Philadelphia Navy Yard, where I received my military training, thence to Camp Edward C. Fuller at Paoli, Pa.
where we engaged in signal work.

I was also on the rifle range at Quantico, Va. where I qualified as an expert rifleman. We returned to our barracks, from Paoli, to Philadelphia, in Nov. 1918, and there remained, until discharged.

While we did not have the opportunity of going overseas. I do not believe there was any group of fellows who had a greater desire to do so than the Field Signal Battalion. U. S. M. C.

Respectfully Yours,
Edwin L. King.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter requesting the essential facts concerning my part in the World War, I will give you a brief outline of the same.

As a member of the Reserve Officer's Training Corps at the University of Michigan I was given Infantry training at Fort Sheridan, and received a certificate from this camp July 3rd, 1918., having completed the course.

September 9, 1918. I enlisted in the Merchant Marine and served on a training ship, the Governor Dingley, until December 20, 1918 at which time I received my honorable discharge.

Hoping this information will be of service to you.

Respectfully yours

Irving M. Trum
